Welcome!

I'm glad you're interested in selling with Palmetto Handmade!

This has been a little dream of mine for over five years, and I am glad to be finally getting it off the ground. What is Palmetto Handmade? It's just the name for my business, which is mainly the name of my web site because I'm not selling anywhere else except Etsy.com. If you are interested in selling through this site, please contact me at the following address: kristi@palmettohandmade.com, or you may use the form on the site's contact page), and I will get you started. I don't want this to be a complicated thing for you, me, or any customers. I have small children and do this from home, so I don't have the time to maintain a full-fledged e-commerce business.

How it works

What you're doing when you sell with Palmetto Handmade is simply offering your products through my site as if you were on the street selling them yourself, but you get instant exposure without having to even change out of your pajamas if you want. ☺ The general idea is I list your products for you, and when someone makes a purchase (the purchase is instant through Paypal, using paypal accounts or credit card), I forward the transaction details on to you from the Palmetto Handmade Paypal account, and you can then ship the product from your house to the buyer. I also immediately Paypal you your profit from the transaction. Since Paypal charges a small fee for transactions, you will lose a few pennies (or dollars, depending on the price of your product) with each sale.

I will ask each merchant to send me a small monthly fee to be a Palmetto Merchant to compensate for my time and effort in running the transactions. If the transactions get over my head, I plan to enlist some of the merchants to aid in transaction services and/or increase the monthly membership fee.

This is the best way I believe to do this for Palmetto Handmade at this time. If it grows, I will change the transaction process, but for now I want to learn how to run it with a small number of merchants and keep it local.

Listing your products

This is where it gets fun! You can list as many or as few products as you like. You have a login for the web site, and you will receive easy instructions on how to list your products. Then, whenever you want, you can go in and add them! You are responsible for adding / removing your products from the Palmetto Handmade store. I am only responsible for forwarding sale transaction details on to you. Take good pictures, add them, and make your products charming! Fun! If all of this sounds good to you, then fill out the forms below and email them back to me. I'll get you set up, and it will be great fun!

Happy selling!
Sincerely,

Kristi

The shopping cart system I use on the site does not allow for multiple shipping discounts. Therefore you will need to lower your overall shipping cost if you anticipate stocking and selling a large amount of one of your products.

The page below has some PH business cards that you can print out to distribute around your world. The margins may need to be adjusted to accommodate your printer settings, but the template should work with standard business cards (Avery, Office Max, Depot, etc.). You may not alter the Palmetto Logo in any way.

Have fun!
